I sent this to your text but not sure it came through
I'll copy it here :)

Hi Catherine

It's cb

I want to let you know how much I appreciate your expertise in the digital workflow and of course your eye.

I'm sorry if I've been a bit unattainable as you know the prep has been hectic.

Also I've talked to the team and have asked for each of our team to respect each other and to treat each other with curtesy in this endeavour.

As a matter of fact I demand it. I will not treat anyone differently myself so I will expect the same.

That's all

I know you got a bad vibe from our 2nd but I think things will be better from here on out.

Thank you again for your care for this process and of course your kindness.

Talk you you real soon
Cb
